ALEXANDER JOHNSTON Md -----St Peters Parish. The wife of Alexander died in 1715. Tradition is that the infant William, his son, was cared for by the family of a Rev McDaniel.

the first book published by Dr. Lorand V. Johnson (he has published 3 books on his Johns(T)on family) he writes that when he first started his genealogical search, he wrote to descendants of the three brothers, William, John, and Alexander. Descendants of William and John responded and gave him all information they had. Descendants of Alexander did not respond. Therefore Dr. Johnson put into his three books what information he could find, and the little that was sent in response to his queries on the Alexander descendants, saying that if at a later date/ time Alexander's descendants became interested, they would have what little he had offered as a start.

The last book written by Lorand V. Johnson goes into great detail and completeness, showing this Johnston/Johnson Family back into the antiquities of history. Those who have it are fortunate. It is a great work. (LUS)

Alice W. Smith has a law degree, and worked in a lawyers office for many years in North Carolina. Her father worked for the State Agriculture in S. C. and contacted my people preparatory to write a history of his family, the Whitneys. He did not get to finish his book, and Alice promised him she would do so. While her father was collecting records on the Whitely family, he also collected from the DuFree families, since he married second, a DuFree descendant. Thru Alice Smith I learned about the DuFree Family from ^{John} my mother descended, and Alice also put together all the records I had collected, and searched in court houses, libraries, etc., - with her lawyer's ability to read legal records, she put these many Johnson families in the right order, and in the right places, so that we may have a record of the descendants of our imigrant ancestor, Alexander Johns(t)on.

ground, and near Union, late in the afternoon, Capt. Rayborn, by too reckless exposure of himself, was killed. None braver went down. Lieutenant Martin succeeded him in command of the company, which was subsequently increased to 100 men, and at Columbus, Miss., an organization was made and the company passed into regular service, again meeting and surrendering to their old combatant, Gen. Sherman, at Greensboro, North Carolina. Officers: John Rayborn, Captain; B. B. Martin, 1st Lieutenant; Thos. Gardner, 2d Lieutenant.

COMPANY I., 36TH REGIMENT.

Was formed near Hickory, in Newton county, and information is furnished by Mr. J. A. Waul, who was a lieutenant in the company. He says the number of men was 113. R. D. Ogletree was the Captain; Dr. G. E. Longmire, 1st Lieutenant; A. W. Whitman, 2d Lieutenant; J. A. Wade, 3d Lieutenant. This company was in the memorable "Bloody Thirty-Sixth" and saw the same severe service and hard fighting that was participated in by the other companies of the regiment.

The engagements of this company were: The battles of Iuka, Corinth, Abbeville and Coffeeville, under General Price of Missouri; Snyder's Bluff, under General Hebert; Vicksburg seige, under General Pemberton; all the Georgia campaign, from Adairsville to Atlanta, under General Johnston; all around Atlanta and at Franklin and Nashville, under General Hood; at Blakely, in April of 1865, one of the severest battles of the war to them, under General Maury. The number of men killed, 14; died from sickness, 20. Nearly the whole company received wounds of more or less severity.

THE NEWTON HORNETS.

Mr. Eugene Carleton, of Decatur, who has fine memory, and was well in position to know, sends the following information of his company, which is very thankfully received. He writes:

"The Newton Hornets, Company D, 39th Mississippi Regiment, Colonel W. B. Shelby, was raised at Decatur, Miss., but was composed of citizens from all parts of the county; was mustered into service about the first of May, 1862. They went out 113 strong; about thirty joined afterwards. The company went out with Dr. J. C. McElroy as captain; James A. Ware, D. M. Bradham, M. J. L. Hoyer, lieutenants. McElroy and Ware resigned. Bradham was then captain. Robert Wells and Charley Chaney were elected to fill their places. Bradham died and Wells resigned. James W. Hardy and Wm. J. Johnson were then elected lieutenants. James T. Thorne was elected in Hardy's place, but was never commissioned. Eugene Carleton was then made brevet-lieutenant, and commanded the company until it reached Atlanta; then he was appointed assistant adjutant of regiment, and Lieut. Jenney, a Missourian, appointed to command. George Wise was elected a lieutenant, and served until after the battle of Nashville. Before the 36th Regiment was ordered to Georgia under General Johnston, it had gone through the seige at Port Hudson of seven weeks. All the officers of Company D. were sent to Johnson's Island, and the men paroled and sent to camps at Enterprise, and on being exchanged were sent to Georgia."

The engagements of this company were: Skirmish at Abbeville; Corinth, October, 1862; the seige at Port Hudson of seven weeks; were in all the skirmishes and battles from Adairsville to Lovejoy Sta-

If you haven't found your CATO family I recommend you check the "Archdiocese of New Orleans Sacramental Records of the Roman Catholic Church, New Orleans, LA" by Reverend Monsignor Earl C. Woods. Its up to eight volumes and can usually be found in major libraries. I have seen the Cato name within their records, which begin in 1718.

Do you by any chance know of a James McIntosh (NC/FL) who married abt 1865 (FL) Marindy Vendrick (born abt 1808)? Marindy is my second great grandmother who was married first to Wiley N. Vendrick. I'm searching for her maiden name.

Hope this helps. Good luck in your research!

Sincerely,
Kelly Allen

JOHNSON FAMILY TREE

I am indebted to Gary Benedetti for surfacing much of the following information about the Johnson Family. He recorded much of this information after traveling in Alabama. I have since added as much information as I could find from different sources, to present the information on the Johnson and Byrd families.

James Johnson and Mary E. B. DeVall (DeVano, I could not decipher the handwritten information at the Monroe County court house, Alabama) were the parents of John Henry Johnson. James died during the civil war and Mary married a man named Brown. John Henry assumed the Brown name after his mother remarried.

John Henry Brown married M. R. Rankin, July 15, 1885 and had a son named Steven. His second spouse was Mamie Elizabeth Chandler and their children were Cynthia, Viola, Brady and Alma. The 1900 census records (B 650 Vol 45 159) in the Archives and History Building, Montgomery, Alabama, shows:

John H. Brown	January, 1854?
Mahala E.	September, 1871
Synthia	November, 1890
Fannie V.	February, 1893

That's getting pretty close for a handwritten census report.

Elizabeth Chandler Brown died in 1904. I found an unmarked grave in Rumbley Cemetery, Peterman, Alabama, that is in the same row of graves with her father, mother, and brother. I talked with George Lee Chandler, who lives in the old Chandler homeplace in Peterman, Alabama, and with his cousin, Carl Chandler who lives in Monroeville. Neither of them remember Elizabeth because she died before they were born, and they knew that the unmarked grave had been in the cemetery for as long as they could remember. Carl had a record book from the Peterman Methodist Church which had recorded the marriage of Cynthia I. Brown to Ralph Gulsby, November 21, 1906. Her membership date in the church book was July 15, 1904.

John Henry married Mamie Biggs, June 29, 1904, and had a son named Julian, born March 3, 1906. I visited Julian in the Monroeville Manor Nursing Home in 1986. He looked exactly like John Henry Johnson's picture from 1940. (Julian died in 1987). He only knew what his mother had told him about his father. His mother told that his father ran off with a woman up the road and went to Mobile and got married and carried his other children with him. That woman was Sarah Dean (Little Grandma Johnson). John Henry assumed his original name of Johnson when he went to Mobile.

Following is the Family Tree as best I could put it together.

GIDEON MACON I - Married Martha Mathews

Gideon Macon was one of the first French Huguenots to come to America. He came to the Virginia colony before 1682. It seems that he had first gone to England from France and thence to the American colonies. His mother, Ann Macon, St. Botolph, Algate, London, made a will 7th Sept. 1699, proved 3rd Aug. 1700; bequeathed as follows: "To Mr. Gideon Macon now living in Virginia and to his wife, to each of them a ring of 20 S apiece." From this will there seems to be the following heirs: Gideon, who emigrated to Virginia in his mother's lifetime, Mary Elvinor, spinster living in London in 1700; Sarah who married Freckelton in London. The will leaves a silver porringer to "Ann Macon, daughter of Gideon Macon, the elder. Martha, my six silver spoons."

Gideon Macon's home was located on the Pamunkey River in Virginia and was called "Mt. Prospect." He was married before 1682 to Martha Mathews, daughter of the Royal Governor of the Virginia Colony, Samuel Mathews. Samuel Mathews emigrated to Virginia in the ship Southampton in 1622 and settled on the south side of the James River in the Indian territory of the Tappahannas opposite to Jamestown. He was at different times counsellor, commander of the fort at Old Point, and Governor, dying in office in 1659 or 1660. He was married twice, the first wife being the daughter of Sir Thomas Hinton who bore him one son, Samuel Mathews, Jr., who died about the same time as his father leaving an only son, John. Gov. Samuel Mathews married a second wife, Frances, who had first married Capt. Nathaniel West, second Abraham Piersey, and third, Governor Mathews. The records mention Gov. Mathews' orphans without giving their names and it is believed that Martha who married Gideon Macon, Sr. was a child by this second wife, Frances. There was a son, Francis, who at his death left an only son, Baldwin. Capt. Francis Mathews was Justice of York County and died Feb. 16, 1674 or 1675.

Martha Mathews lived in New Kent County, Virginia and was a communicant of St. Peters Church there. This old church is still in use. Gideon Macon, Sr. represented New Kent County in the colonial government at Williamsburg, being member of the House of Burgesses, according to the records on file there. He served from 1699 to 1702, dying in office. His name is on a plaque on one of the pews in Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, as denotes that he served as vestryman. I understand he is honored by having his name on a bronze tablet in the old Huguenot Church in Charleston, S.C. as being a descendant of the protestants of France called Huguenots.

IVER JOHNSON STORY
by his neice - 762-3618

Iver Johnson came to Pascagoula about 1905 on Clark Dredge boat. This was the first dredge boat in Pascagoula. In about 1911 or 1912 they brought the dredge boat Pascagoula here. Iver was the first mate on it.

He and Charlie Moe were friends. Charlie Moe would go to see Florence Richard and Iver to see Rosa Gentile on Lake Ave.

Iver boarded with Andrew Nelson's father of South Pascagoula Street. He would go to sea and leave about $400.00 with Mr. Nelson to keep for him.

Iver claimed he had been around the world on sailing boats.

* He was born in Denmark and never lost his accent. He left from England when he was 13 years old working on whaleing boats. He said it was the dirtiest job he ever had.

He and Captain Bodden (Roberts father) were on the same boat when it sank. They swam to an island and were there a few days when they were picked up and taken to Cyman Island.

Iver married Rosa Gentile and lived with her mother Mrs. C. Gentile for about two years at 1102 Lake Ave. Their daughter Marie Louise was born there.

He bought the home next door to Rosa's mother from May Davidson and William Buras for $1400.00. This house was built by May's father John Davidson. They rented the house for a while until they discovered the renters had burned all the doors for fire wood. Then he rented the house to his friend Capt. John Mallon.

He stayed on the dredge boats until he retired. He worked for Capt. Adam Gautier and Capt. Mallon. He worked as a mate and then became a rigger. He was "Capt. Joe" when he retired.

* He left Denmark when he was 13 and never returned.

In 1912 he was very sick. Dr. Tabor was tending to him. His brother-in-law Johnnie Gentile took him to Turo Hospital in New Orleans. The Doctor operated on him and he began to feel better.

He retired from government service on the dredge boat but when WWII came along he went to work at Ingalls shipyard as a rigger and said "I will quit the day the war is over". He quit that day.

He had never been back to his home in Denmark since he left. He was over 70 years old when he flew to his daughter's home in New Jersey. Josie Johnson and her husband Charles Burke put him on a plane for Denmark. He said he knocked on the doors of his sisters and brothers and said "I'm the Fuller brush man." What a reunion he had with his family.

He was born July 17, 1874 and died July 5, 1960. Rosa Gentile Johnson was born Aug. 16, 1892 and died Sept. 9, 1975 both are buried at Machpelah Cemetery.

They had four children. Marie Louise 1912 - 1944 buried at Machpelah Cemetery. She never married. Herman Johnson married Lenora Cox. They had eight children. Josie married Charles Burke of New Jersey. Josie was born Dec. 26, 1917 died Dec. 1981 in N.J. Charles Burke born Sept. 7, 1911 - May 4, 1986 both buried at Machpelah Cemetery. Nora A. Johnson born July 4, 1920 - April 17, 1986 married Lonnie J. Watta born Nov. 22, 1915 - Jan. 28, 1962 both buried at Machpelah. They has four children.

Rosa Gentile's parents were Concathice D'Antoni and Anthony Gentile.

Iver was of the Lutherine fath and he and his friend William "Bill" Brondum attended the Lutheran Church on South Pascagoula Street every Sunday.

His home on Lake Ave. next door to his son Herman Johnson is over seventy years old and has been restored.

INDEX TO SOUTHERN DISTRICT, 1840 FEDERAL CENSUS - STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

Compiled and Published by G. A. M. Publications

1970

FOREWORD

The source for this index is a microfilm copy of the Fifth United States Federal Census obtained from the National Archives, Washington, D. C. This census of 1840 listed only the head of a household by name. He or she and other members of the household were enumerated by male or female in the following age groups: under 5; 5 to 10; 10 to 15; 15 to 20; 20 to 30; 30 to 40; 40 to 50; 50 to 60; 60 to 70; 70 to 80; 80 to 90; 90 to 100 and 100 plus. This census was important in that all Revolutionary Pensioners were named. These pensioners are listed, by county, at the beginning of the index showing with whom they were living if they were not the head of a household.

The compilers have made every effort to transcribe the census correctly. However, the researcher must be aware that at this time many names were spelled phonetically (just as they sounded). Every possible spelling of a name should be checked. We have transcribed the census exactly as the original even when it was obvious that a name was misspelled.

The handwriting of the day must be taken into consideration. While, each enumerators handwriting was carefully studied to avoid mistakes some have undoubtedly been made. Many enumerators wrote with a great flourish and a fancy swirl at the end of a name could have been mistaken for an additional letter on the end of a name. With some enumerators it was almost impossible to tell the difference between a capital "L" and "S" and "J's" and "I's" were identical. If an "a" was not closed it could have been mistaken for an "o". These are just a few examples of difficulties encountered with the old style of handwriting. Here again, the researcher should check every possible spelling of a name.

The page numbers listed in the body of the index are the page numbers of the Federal Census. Should the researcher want to check further on a name, and has access to a microfilm copy of the census, it can easily be found by going directly to the county and page number as shown in our index.

G. A. M. is an organization established by three practicing Genealogists. Gwen Platt, Annabel Lannert and Marion Peer (thus the name "G.A.M."). This index has been compiled and as faithfully recorded as if we were doing our own family research.

Price of this index is $12.00 (California residents, add 5% Sales Tax)

This image shows a vertical cross-section or edge of a document. On the right side, there is a thick, dark, and heavily textured band, likely representing the book's binding or spine. To the left of this band is a wide, light-colored area with a grainy, speckled texture, which appears to be the surface of a page or endpaper. The overall appearance suggests an old or worn piece of paper or parchment.
